Determining your residential category – notes for guidance

Publicly funded educational institutions charge two levels of fee: the lower 'home' fee and the higher 'overseas' fee for higher education programmes. If you meet the residence and immigrations status conditions you will be charged the lower 'home' fee.

Detailed guidance on assessing the 'home' residential category is available from UKCISA: The UK Council for International Student Affairs; guidance is available on:

UKCISA WEBSITE

or you can obtain information from the University Student Welfare Advice Team. Below is a very brief guide to the complex legislation covering the assessment of residential category. Please note that 'special' fee rates apply to students from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Residential Category assessment is important and you must make sure your fee status is agreed before enrolling on your programme of study.

WHAT AFFECTS YOUR STATUS?

Settled in the UK

There must be no restrictions on your stay in the UK. This generally means that you have to have British Citizenship, Indefinite Leave to Remain, or Right of Abode (however, see below for exceptions).

Your residential category is not determined solely by your nationality.

Residence

This is very important. You need to have been resident in the UK and Islands/EEA for three years prior to the relevant date. (The relevant date used for assessments will be the 1st September, 1st January or 1st April preceding the start of your programme.) During these three years, your residence in the UK/EEA should not have been mainly or wholly for the purpose of receiving full time education.

EXCEPTIONS

Only in certain excepted categories will prospective students who do not meet the residence and settlement requirements avoid being liable for the overseas tuition fee rate. If you fall into any of these categories you will need to provide documentary evidence. The excepted categories are:

- European Union (EU) Nationals who meet the residence requirements in the EU/EEA
- Persons with formal refugee status
- Persons granted Humanitarian Protection
- Persons granted Exceptional Leave to Remain/Enter (ELR/E)
- Formal Reciprocal Exchange Students
- EEA Migrant Workers and their families

IS THE ASSESSMENT FINAL?

Once you have formally enrolled on a programme, your residential category assessment will not change unless the original assessment is later found to be incorrect. Changes in your nationality, residential status, visa status, or other circumstances will not alter your fee assessment. The only exceptions to this rule are:

- i)– those granted Humanitarian Protection or ELE/R
- ii)–where a country formally joins the European Union.

Changes of fee status will normally be implemented at the beginning of the next fee charging period.
